

WESTERN AUSTRALIAN HERITAGE ICONS 2004
CONNECTING A COMMUNITY

PRESENTED BY THE WESTERN AUSTRALIAN GOVERNMENT
AND THE NATIONAL TRUST OF AUSTRALIA (WA)
TO COMMEMORATE THE 175TH ANNIVERSARY
OF THE FOUNDING OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA

YOU ARE INVITED TO NOMINATE
A WESTERN AUSTRALIAN HERITAGE ICON

We all know Western Australia is a better place to live. Some of the features that make it a better place to live are those we regard as icons of our State. 2004 will mark the 175th Anniversary of the founding of Western Australia. To commemorate this event I encourage you all to consider those features that best identify what Western Australia means to you, and to nominate them to be a Western Australian Heritage Icon. I will announce our first Heritage Icons during 2004.

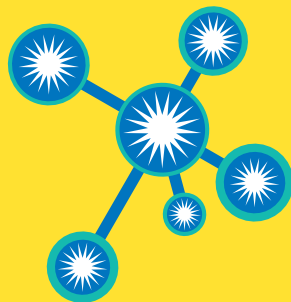

DR GEOFF GALLOP MLA
PREMIER OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA

The National Trust of Australia (WA) is the pre-eminent independent community body promoting the conservation and interpretation of Western Australia's unique heritage. As an organisation it aims to encourage and educate the community about the use of cultural heritage (built, natural and indigenous) for long-term social, economic and environmental benefit. The National Trust is a membership-based organisation.

WESTERN AUSTRALIAN HERITAGE ICONS 2004
CONNECTING A COMMUNITY

Western Australian Heritage Icons is a community project.

It aims to seek out the connections that we, as the people of Western Australia, have a shared understanding - the physical and the intangible - the defining features of Western Australia that are recognisable and meaningful to individuals of all ages and walks of life. Collectively they represent the key features of the State and our combined experiences.

We invite you to nominate things from everyday life or our recent past that have the potential to be a Western Australian Heritage Icon. After all, Western Australia's story is told not just in books and monuments, but also in the shared remembrances and activities of all communities.

Things eligible for nomination include natural and built landscapes, phenomena, events, ceremonies, inventions, folklore and objects, which are typically Western Australian.
